Why invest in the Intelligent Investor Ethical Share Fund?

INES provides exposure to a portfolio of ESG screened growth companies. Investors can match financial goals with their principles in a value investing active ETF.

Launched in 2019, INES has had a prosperous beginning. Portfolio manager Nathan Bell took advantage of the FY22 market excitement and took profits for the fund from several excellent performing investments.

The current market climate has favoured the cyclical resource giants. This means high-quality businesses, like CSL and ResMed, and our collection of founder-led mid-to-small cap companies, are trading at their most attractive valuations in years. Opportunities abound and Nathan has put the cash to work.

INES has implemented an investment style and process that systematically takes into account environmental, social, governance and ethical considerations. In addition, the INES ethical screening process has been verified by an external party - RIAA.

Benefits of investing in the Intelligent Investor Ethical Share Fund

- A patient value investing approach from a team with a 20+ year track record of success.
- A portfolio of today's market leaders and the next generation of quality companies.
- Meets strict operational and disclosure practices required by the Responsible Investment Association Australasia (RIAA).
- Low management fee and no performance fee - more returns stay in investors pockets.
